Karnataka Opposes UGC's Biannual Admissions Order

-VidarthiMitra News Desk

Karnataka has opposed the UGC's directive to implement biannual admissions in Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) aimed at increasing India's Gross Enrollment Ratio (GER) to 50% by 2035. The UGC mandates HEIs to enrol students twice a year, in July-August and January-February.

Karnataka's Higher Education Minister, M.C. Sudhakar, criticized the policy, claiming it imposes foreign education models unsuitable for India's system, citing faculty and infrastructure shortages in the state. He also noted the limited adoption of the Common University Entrance Test (CUET) in Karnataka, making the policy impractical.

Education activist Sripada Bhat argued the policy overlooks dropout rates and questioned its efficacy. Bangalore University Vice-Chancellor, Jayakara S.M., warned of disruptions to the current academic structure, which includes three annual exams and admissions until September. Further actions will follow state government directives.

Riddles

1. In me, scholars gather to broaden their mind,
With knowledge and wisdom, they hope to find.
I have many books and many a chair,
A place for thought and silent prayer.

2. I come in many forms, with numbers and lines,
Equations and theorems, solutions you find.
In algebra or geometry, I play my part,
What am I, that requires both brain and heart?

3. A place where experiments are done with care,
With beakers and Bunsen burners everywhere.
Discoveries are made, hypotheses tested,
In what place are knowledge and science invested?

4. I stand at the front, with a board and a desk,
Imparting wisdom on every subject and test.
Students listen, taking notes with their pen,
Who am I, guiding future women and men?

5. My chapters are many, filled with information,
I serve as a tool for education.
With pages to turn and lessons to learn,
What am I, that students often yearn?

6. I am a culmination of years of hard work,
A ceremony where graduates and families
lurk.
Caps and gowns, diplomas in hand,
What event marks this celebratory stand?

7. You write me with diligence, your knowledge to show,
Through essays and answers, your intellect will grow.
Evaluated by teachers, I reflect your grade,
What am I, this academic parade?

8. I'm an institution where futures are
